DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-27 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: ✓

The prior art does not teach or suggest a portable calibration unit for calibration test equipment having a processor in communication with the computer embedded within said test equipment for controlling a variable signal source; and a test interface for communicating said test signal to said test equipment, as recited in the independent claim 1;

establishing a communication link between a calibration pod and a personal computer (PC) embedded within said test system; generating a test signal within said calibration pod responsive to a digital signal received from said PC, as recited in the independent claim 12;

a calibration unit having an interface for connecting to a personal computer (PC) embedded in said test equipment; a processor within said calibration unit, said processor configured to receive digital control signals from said PC; a signal source for generating a test signal responsive to said digital control signals, as recited in the independent claim 19 and in combination of the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
